NotOnly4Boys Theatre Company. Terms and Conditions.

Cancellation

NotOnly4Boys Theatre Company, hereafter known as “The Company”, reserve the right to cancel any performance, either before or during the performance if The Company judge that the cast , the crew or the audience may be at risk of death or injury due to unsafe conditions at the venue booked for that performance.
If the show is cancelled due to the above circumstance, The Company shall make reasonable attempt to re-schedule the performance at a time convenient to the organisers. Payment for the original performance will not be refunded and any re-scheduled performance may incur additional fees payable at the discretion of The Company.
In the event of a cancellation made at the request of The Company due to death , sickness or injury , The Company shall re-schedule the performance at a time convenient to the organisers. If The Company shall be unable to re-schedule the performance, the fees paid by the organisers for the performance shall be refundable.

In the event of a cancellation of a booking by the organisers of the event, The Company shall be given notice of such cancellation not less than one (1) calendar month before the date of the booked performance.
If one month notice of cancellation is given, The Company shall be entitled to retain twenty (20) per cent of the payment for the booked performance in lieu of incurred expenses to The Company.The remainder of the payment shall be returned to the organisers as soon as possible.
If the organisers cancel the performance without notice of one month being given to The Company, The Company shall be entitled to the full payment for the performance.

Payment

A deposit of twenty (20) per cent of the total amount payable for the performance shall be made to The Company at the time of booking the event.
The balance of the total amount payable less the deposit already paid shall be payable to The Company not less than one (1) calendar month before the date of the booked performance.
Payment shall be made to The Company by a cheque drawn on a UK bank account, by BACS payment to an account designated by The Company, or by Bank Draft.
At The Company’s discretion payment may be made by PayPal but such payment will attract an administration charge of five (5) per cent of the amount paid, to be added to the amount payable.
A receipt shall be issued by electronic mail by The Company to the organisers on receiving cleared payment in consideration of the booking fees for the performance.
A booking shall only be considered as effective and binding upon both parties once the organisers have made the required payment as deposit and once a receipt has been issued by The Company.
Failure to pay the balance following a confirmed booking by the organisers to The Company at least one calendar month before the date of the performance shall result in the cancellation of the booking.In the event of any such cancellation, The Company shall not be liable for any material or financial loss suffered by the organisers as a result of the cancellation of the performance by The Company.

Tickets

Tickets purchased in advance directly from The Company are not refundable.In the event of the performance being cancelled by The Company reasonable effort to re-schedule the performance will be made and such tickets shall be valid for any such re-scheduled performance.If The Company shall deem it impossible to re-schedule any performance refund of ticket fees paid may be made on production of valid ticket for the cancelled performance.

If the holder of a ticket issued for any performance by The Company fails to attend such performance, the ticket will expire.The Company accepts no liability to arrange any alternative performance or to refund any payment in respect of any such ticket.
Tickets purchased in advance from any third party seller for any performance by The Company, shall be valid for the agreed performance only.Any representation for refund or replacement of such tickets shall only be made to the original seller.The Company shall not be liable for any loss whether financial or material suffered by the purchasers of tickets from third party sellers or their agents.
